

Committee and Board Application Form

The Annapolis Valley Farmland Trust (AVFT) was founded in 2010 as a charitable status society. The mandate of AVFT is to:

- 1) Promote the preservation of agricultural lands
- 2) Facilitate the placement of farmland trust easements onto properties in the Annapolis Valley
- 3) Purchase lands for the Trust when appropriate
- 4) Help ensure future generations have lands to farm

Membership is open to all interested people ($50/year). Board and committee members must be members of the organization.

Personal Information

Name: _____

Phone Number: _____ Email: _____

Civic Address: _____

Questions

I authorize the release of the above personal information to the AVFT Board of Directors.

Yes:

No:

Below are the committees with current vacancies. Please check the box of the committee you are interested in serving.

Board of Directors

Communications Committee

Fundraising Committee

Eligibility – you must be an AVFT member to be on Board of Directors. Are you a member. If not will you become a member and be willing to pay the annual membership dues.?

Yes:

No:

State briefly your interest in being appointed to the committee of your preference

What qualifications and experience do you have that make you an ideal candidate for this position?

Please indicate any board/committee that you have served; and any other community volunteer work, or involvement.

State briefly any additional skills or expertise that you have that would enhance the work of the committee of your preference.

Do you have experience in exchanging your views with others and in appreciating and respecting the skills, abilities and knowledge of others?

Yes:

No:

Attendance at committee meetings is important, are you able to commit the time to attend these meetings?

Yes:

No:

Please submit application forms to: avft_society@gmail.com